D. STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. In this application, unless the context otherwise indicates, the singular shall include the plural and the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender; and

"the Board of Governors ":	shall mean the body in which the control and management of the College is vested
"the Guardian"	shall mean the legal guardian of the Learner and includes a parent in relation to a child or the person in whose custody the child has been lawfully placed
"the Principal"	shall mean the Principal and/or Acting Principal of the College as the case may be;
"the Learner"	shall mean the child/children whose name or names appear below
"the Rules"	shall mean the Rules and Regulations of the College, as amended from time to time
"the College"	shall mean St. Henry's Marist College
"the Terms "	shall mean the Standard Terms of Admission and Enrolment as set out herein
"Third Party"	shall mean the person/entity responsible for the account in the event of the Guardian not being primarily responsible therefor
"the school fees"	shall mean the tuition fees, stationery levies, book levies, ordinary outing levy and such other payments as may be set by the Board of Governors from time to time
'the tuition fees"	the annual school fee, excluding sundry levies and other payments such as those referred to as being included in "the school fees"

2. The Guardian and the Third Party choose as their domicilium citandi et executandi (the address for the service of all notices and all legal processes) either of the addresses set out in Part B hereof, provided that the Guardian and the Third Party shall be entitled, by written notice to the College, to change their domicilium citandi et executandi with effect from fourteen days of receipt of such notice by the College, subject to such addresses being within the Republic of South Africa.
3. The Guardian and the Third Party confirm by their signature hereto that they are applying to enrol the Learner at the College subject to the terms and conditions hereof, and the College's Rules and Regulations as amended from time to time. The Guardian and/or Third Party are, upon request therefor, entitled to a copy of the College's Rules and Regulations free of charge. Furthermore the Rules and Regulations may be inspected at the College at all reasonable times by prior arrangement.

All signatories to initial:

The terms and conditions hereof shall prevail in the event of any conflict or ambiguity arising from any other document that may or may not be required to be signed unless such document confirms that is an Addendum to these terms and conditions.

4. The Guardian and Third Party further confirm that in the event of the admission of the Learner to the College, this agreement and the College's Rules and Regulations shall constitute the sole agreement in terms of which the Learner is accepted, and neither party shall be bound by any terms, undertaking, representation or warranty not expressly recorded herein or in the said Rules and Regulations.
5. The admission and enrolment of Learners is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Principal who may refuse admission and terminate any enrolment with or without giving reasons therefor, and he may grant temporary or provisional enrolment subject to such further terms and conditions that he may impose.
6. This agreement shall remain of full force and effect, until terminated by either party in accordance with the terms hereof, or as a result of the Learner completing his schooling.
School fees are subject to annual adjustment as determined by the Board of Governors in order to meet the needs of the school. Advance written notice of not more than 80 and not less than 40 business days will be given to the Guardian of the change in school fees, which the Guardian and/or Third Party undertakes to pay timeously.
7. It is hereby acknowledged that ONE FULL term's notice, in writing ("the requisite notice") is required to be given to the College in the event of the Learner being removed from the College for whatever reason. Should the requisite notice not be given, the Guardian and the Third Party will be responsible for the payment of the forthcoming term's fees in lieu of such requisite notice. . Where the Guardian and/or Third Party has made payment for the forthcoming term in lieu of giving the requisite notice and a replacement learner applying for admission and being enrolled during the term following the Learner's departure from the College and provided the terms fees in lieu of the requisite notice has been paid on or before the Learner's departure, then, the Guardian and/or Third Party will be refunded an amount equal to the College's recovery in relation to its estimated loss at the end of such term. There is however no obligation on the College to do anything to find a replacement learner. For the purposes hereof, a certificate signed by the Principal or his nominee, confirming the number of learners in the applicable grade at the start and end of the term for which payment was made in lieu of the requisite notice, will constitute proof of whether or not a replacement learner was accepted into the grade. For clarity it will be deemed that a replacement was found if the number of learners in the applicable grade at the end of the term in question exceeds the number of learners at the start of that term.
8. The Guardian acknowledges that all persons enter the school premises at their sole risk and responsibility and acknowledges that it is the responsibility of the Guardian to ensure that the Learner is adequately insured against personal injury or related risks. It is further the responsibility of the Guardian to ensure that all personal belongings of the said learner are adequately insured against loss or damage. Under no circumstances will the College, its Board of Governors and/or its employees accept responsibility for any injury, loss and/or damage, and the Guardian hereby waives and abandons all claims, and hereby exempts and releases the College, its Board of Governors and its employees from all liability in consequence of any injury or loss sustained by the Guardian and/or Third Party or the Learner on account of any act or omission by the College, its Board of Governors and its employees, other learners, agents or invitees.

The Guardian furthermore hereby agrees that:

- a) while the Learner is at College or is conveyed or transported at any time for any purposes whatsoever, then it shall be at the Guardian and Learner's own risk. While all reasonable care shall be taken to ensure the safety of all the Learners, the College, the Board of Governors and/or parents who are acting for the College and/or individual employees and/or agents of the College shall not be liable in law or otherwise to the said Learner or Guardian for any loss or damages arising out of bodily injury or death. Likewise, should the Guardian become liable to pay medical or other expenses to any third party as a result of bodily injuries or death suffered by the Learner, the Guardian accepts that he shall have no claim against the College, the Board of Governors or any individual staff member, employee or agent of the college (and/or any parent who may be acting on behalf of the College) for recovery of such expenses, and the Guardian hereby waives any such claim which he may have. This indemnity shall also apply to the Learner's involvement in any extra-mural activities, whether on or off the school premises.
 - b) he, his executor, heirs and/or assignees shall have no claim against the College and/or individual employees and/or agents of the College, for any loss or damages arising out of bodily injury or death of the Guardian and/or Learner or damage to any of the Guardian and/or Learner's personal belongings and the Guardian hereby exempts and releases the Board of Governors or any individual staff member, employee or agent of the College from all liability in consequence of any injury or loss sustained by the Guardian and/or Learner and/or any person on the school premises who may be representing and/or accompanying the Guardian and/or Learner.
9. The Guardian and/or Third Party indemnifies the College, its Board of Governors, its agents and employees against all liability for any injury or loss sustained by any person on account of any act or omission by the Learner, and the Guardian and/or Third Party accept full liability and responsibility for any such act or omission.
 10. The Guardian and/or Third Party confirms that a certificate signed by the office of the Finance and Estate Manager or Head of the College, Principal or their nominee, showing the amount owing by the Guardian or Third Party to the College shall be prima facie proof (accepted as correct until proved otherwise) that the said amount is due, owing and payable and shall be satisfactory proof of what is contained therein for the purposes of any action (whether by way of provisional sentence, summary judgment or otherwise), proof of the debt on insolvency or for any other purpose whatsoever. Where the quantum of the College's claim is thereafter disputed by the Guardian or Third Party, the Guardian or Third Party shall bear the onus of proving that such amount is not owing and/or due and/or payable.
 11. In the event of any breach of these Terms and Conditions, or of the College Rules and Regulations by the Guardian and/or Third Party or the Learner or in the event of the Principal, in his sole and absolute discretion being of the opinion that it is not in the best interests of the College and/or the College's community (being management, staff, Board of Governors, service providers, visitors, guests, other learners, parents and guardians) that the Learner remain enrolled at the College then:

All signatories to initial:

- 11.1 The Principal shall be entitled to declare the Learner's admission and enrolment cancelled and to prohibit the Learner from further attendance at the College.
- 11.2 The College shall be entitled to instruct attorneys to attend to the collection of all outstanding money due to the College and sue for the recovery thereof if necessary, in which event:
 - 11.2.1 The Guardian (in his personal capacity and in his capacity as surety and co-principal debtor as the case may be) and the Third Party shall be liable for the legal costs thereof on an attorney and own client scale including collection commission, tracing fees and the like;
 - 11.2.2 The Guardian (in his personal capacity and in his capacity as surety and co-principal debtor) and the Third Party hereby consent in terms of Section 45 of the Magistrate's Court Act No. 32 of 1944 (as amended) to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court over the Guardian and the Third Party for the determination of any action or proceedings otherwise beyond the jurisdiction of the said Court. It is hereby expressly understood and agreed that the College shall be entitled, and not obliged, to bring any action in any other competent Court that has jurisdiction over the Guardian and/or Third Party; and
 - 11.2.3 The Guardian (in his personal capacity and in his capacity as surety and co-principal debtor) and/or Third Party hereby agree to an emoluments attachment order being issued against his earnings.
12. In the event of the Third Party taking responsibility for the account, the Guardian by his signature hereto hereby binds himself jointly and severally in his personal capacity as surety and co-principal debtor with the Third Party for payment to the College for any amounts which are owing and may at any time become owing to the College by the Third Party from whatever cause arising. The guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and the Guardian will only be released in writing by the College who will be obliged to release him in the event of the Third Party and/or the Guardian settling the Third Party's account with the College in full. The Guardian hereby renounces the benefits of the legal exceptions and the benefit of "non causa debiti" (no valid reason for the debt); no value received and "beneficium ordinis seu excussionis et divisionis" (The surety's right that the estate of the principal debtor should first be excused and that the liability should be divided on a pro rata basis between the co-sureties) the force, meaning and effect of which he declares himself to be fully acquainted. The Guardian also acknowledges that any certificate issued in pursuance of paragraph 10 above shall be binding upon him in any action brought against him as surety and co-principal debtor.
13. Neither the Guardian and/or the Third Party shall be entitled to cede and /or assign their rights and/or obligations under this agreement.
14. In the event of the Third Party being a company/close corporation or other legal entity, the person signing this agreement warrants that he is duly authorized to represent the Third Party and to bind the Third Party to these terms and conditions. Should this warranty be breached then the signatory shall be personally liable for all the obligations of the Third Party.
15. The remedy stipulated above shall not be exhaustive and shall be in addition and without prejudice to any other or further remedies available in law.
16. The College reserves the right to amend, vary, cancel or add any clause in/to this agreement, in its sole and absolute discretion, as long as such amendment, variation, cancellation or addition is reasonably necessary for the efficient administration of the College, and is reduced to writing and signed by the Principal. Such amendment will become effective 30 days after notice thereof has been given.
17. No indulgence, leniency or extension of time which either party may grant to the other, shall in any way prejudice the grantor or preclude the grantor from exercising any of its rights in the future.
18. Where any notice is required to be given by the Guardian and/or Third Party in terms of this Agreement, then such notice shall be in writing and delivered to the Principal during school term time. No such notice may be given by way of electronic data messaging.
19. No variation, alteration or consensual termination of this Agreement other than as referred to in Clause 16 above, shall be of any force or effect unless reduced and signed by both the parties. No such variation, alteration or consensual termination shall be capable of being effected by way of electronic means.

F. CODE OF CONDUCT & OTHER MATTERS

1. The College subscribes to a Code of Conduct that deals with general behaviour, dress and grooming, substance abuse, disciplinary procedures and sanctions for contravening the Code. Completion of this application form expressly implies acceptance of and willingness of Guardian, The Third Party and the Learner to be bound by the Code of Conduct.
2. The Guardian:
 - 2.1 accepts that it is a requirement that all Learners participate in all religious education classes, assemblies and church services held at the school irrespective of whether they are Catholic or not;

All signatories to initial:

- 2.2 gives his consent for the Learner to take part in any and all of the extra mural activities of the College, including, but not limited to, all games, athletics, educational and sports tours and excursions of any nature whatsoever, which the College authorities consider desirable;
- 2.3 acknowledges and accepts that in the event of the Learner being involved in a non-College event taking place at the same time as a College event, that the College event shall take precedence, unless the Learner is excused by the Principal upon the Principal receiving a written request delivered to him not less than 7 school days before the College event;
- 2.4 acknowledges that the Learner will honour the sports and cultural commitments made each term; and
- 2.5 consents to the Learner's name and image being published in the electronic and printed media by the College.

3 The Principal reserves the right:

- 3.1 at his discretion to inspect and search the Learner's person, belongings and possessions, and the Guardian, in so far as it may be necessary, hereby authorizes and consents to the Principal and/or his appointees to do so and further authorises the Principal and/or his appointees to carry out any tests, medical or otherwise after giving the Guardian written notice of his intention to do so, if the Principal suspects any substance abuse or other wrongdoing
- 3.2 to "detain" the Learner for misconduct or poor performance without necessarily giving notice to the Guardian.

- 4. At all times during school term, the Guardian authorises the Principal (or his appointed deputy) to act – "in loco parentis" (in the place of the parent) – including granting consent for medical treatment, operations and anaesthetics. The exact interpretation of this phrase in an emergency is at the discretion of the Principal (or his appointed deputy), who will consult the Guardian where, in his opinion this is possible, taking into account all relevant circumstances.
- 5. The Guardian and the Third Party undertake that they shall conduct themselves in a respectful and courteous manner in their interaction with the College, its management, staff, Board of Governors, employees, service providers, visitors, guests, Learners, other guardians and parents, and they will not by any act or omission, do or fail to do anything that may or will cause damage to the good name and reputation of the College. Conduct by a Guardian and or Third Party or their invitees to the College, which is deemed by the Principal to be unacceptable, could result in the termination of the Learner's enrolment at the College.

G. DEBTORS POLICY

1. School Fees are payable as follows:

- 1.1 Annually by 31st January; or
- 1.2 Four equal debit orders raised on or before the end of the first week of each and every term; or
- 1.3 Ten equal monthly debit orders (January to October) raised by either the 1st; 10th; 16th; 22nd or 26th of every month.

A failure by the Learner to attend classes for whatever reason will not reduce the Guardian and/or Third Party's liability for the tuition fees for the full academic year, except with the written consent and at the sole discretion of the Board of Governors.

- 2. Where fees are paid annually in advance on or before the date set by and announced by the College for qualification therefor, a discount in respect of the total fee payable may be allowed.
- 3. Any discount referred to above will not apply to sundry levies and other payments, and shall apply solely to the annual tuition fee, and may be discontinued at the sole and absolute discretion of the Board of Governors.
- 4. Interest or other income which may be earned from fees paid in advance will accrue to the school as income.
- 5. Only cash (by direct deposit into the College's bank account - details are available from the Finance Department), bank guaranteed cheques or credit card payments will be accepted as further payment on accounts for which a Return to Drawer cheque has been received. An administrative fee of R100.00 will be levied for every cheque that is referred to drawer.
- 6. In the event of debit orders being returned owing to insufficient funds, an administrative fee of R100.00 will be levied per return.
- 7. Any outstanding fees from the previous year must be settled before the expiry of the academic year they relate to unless arrangements to the contrary have been made and agreed to with the College and such arrangement has been confirmed in writing by the College or the College attorneys.
- 8. Procedures for collection:
 - 8.1 Statements of account will be emailed monthly to the email address set out in C1 above. Statements of account are for record purposes only and fees are not deemed payable on receipt of invoice but are payable as agreed in terms hereof.
 - 8.2 All procedures and communications concerning the collection of fees will be conducted by the Finance and Estate Manager's Department.
 - 8.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 8.2 above, the Principal and or his deputies may make contact with a defaulting Guardian and/or Third Party of a Learner in their phase if an account falls into arrears for the purpose of requesting a settlement of the account; or arranging for the account to be settled in an acceptable manner. Such contact is without prejudice and does not preclude the notice referred to in clause 8.4 being sent to the Guardian and/or Third Party.

All signatories to initial:

- 8.4 If there is a balance outstanding on a student’s account after due date the party/parties responsible for payment will be sent a reminder by SMS. If no response is received within 7 days, a formal demand will be sent to those responsible for the account calling for payment within 7 days.
- 8.5 Should the fees remain outstanding and no acceptable arrangements be made for the settlement thereof within the notice period, then upon the expiry of the 7 day period the College shall be entitled to terminate this agreement and to hand the account over to the College’s attorneys for collection without further notice.
- 8.6 Should arrangements be made and accepted by the College, and should the Guardian and/or Third Party not adhere to such arrangements, then the College shall be entitled to terminate this agreement and hand the account over to the College's attorneys for collection without further notice.
- 8.7 In the event of a subsequent default during an academic year, the College shall not be obliged to give the Guardian and/or Third Party any further notice in terms of paragraph 8.4 above before handing the account over to the College's attorneys for collection and/or terminating this agreement.
- 9. Interest at the rate prescribed by the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act (Act No. 55 of 1975) shall be charged on all overdue amounts.
- 10. General:
 - 10.1 All communications concerning arrangements for the payment of outstanding accounts will be confirmed in writing by the College or its attorneys.
 - 10.2 Payments will be allocated against the account in the following order:
 - 10.2.1 Legal fees and disbursements
 - 10.2.2 Interest
 - 10.2.3 Extras (levies for books, trips, stationery, etc.)
 - 10.2.4 Annual tuition fees
- 11. The Guardian and Third Party hereby authorise the College, and/or their agent to make any credit enquiries, as they, in their sole discretion may deem necessary, with any credit bureaux for the purposes of considering this application and at any time thereafter, should the application be successful.
- 12. Should the Guardian and Third Party fail to make timeous payment of any amounts due, then the College may, after 20 days written notice by prepaid registered mail of its intention to do so, record such failure with any credit bureaux.

H. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT BY GUARDIAN/THIRD PARTY

The Guardian and/or Third Party acknowledge that:

- 1. The College is a Private Independent School.
- 2. They are fully aware of what the current school fees are and that these are increased from time to time as determined by the Board.
- 3. They are aware of the current school fees and having regard to past historic increases of such fees, the fees are affordable to them having regard to their monthly income and expenses and that they are able to meet their commitment to the College timeously.
- 4. The enrolment of the Learner at the College will not result in them becoming financially over-committed.
- 5. They are required to advise the College promptly in writing, in the event of there being any change in their financial circumstances that impact, or may impact, upon their ability to meet their commitments in terms of this Agreement.
- 6. Any change in their financial circumstances may result in their being required to pay the balance of the annual school fees upfront for the remainder of the year, and/or accepting that this Agreement may be terminated at the College's sole and absolute discretion without prejudice to any of the College's rights such as, but not limited to the term's Fee in lieu of notice; the collection of arrear outstanding fees, etc.
