

St Henry's Marist College is an independent, co-educational Catholic School founded in 1929 by the Marist Brothers and is situated in Glenwood, Durban.

We are looking for a full-time
Locum Afrikaans Teacher (Grades 4-7) to join our Marist family from 20 July until 30 November 2026.

The ideal candidate should:

- Have a strong commitment to the objectives and ethos of Catholic education within the Marist tradition.
- Be a person of integrity and enthusiasm, with strong teaching, administrative and interpersonal skills.
- Have a successful teaching record, the requisite academic and professional qualifications, SACE registration and required clearance certificates.
- Be able to work in a collaborative environment as part of the Intermediate Phase team.
- Possess strong ICT skills and be able to innovatively integrate these skills in the classroom. Prior knowledge of the Google educational ecosystem would be advantageous.
- Have a working knowledge of the CAPS curriculum and a sound understanding of integrated studies.
- Contribute to the Preparatory School, especially in the area of pastoral care, by being able to work with children in a nurturing way in order to develop them holistically.
- Be willing to coach within and/or support the extra-curricular programme of the school.

Prospective candidates can view the application requirements and details of the application process on the College's website.
